Introduction to US Veteran Benefits and Services

The Veterans Administration (VA) and the Department of Defense (DOD) offer many benefits and services to US Servicemembers, Veterans and their dependents and survivors. Active National Guard members and Reserve members may also qualify for many benefit programs.

VA Structure

The VA is structured into three main service lines that administer the Veteran benefits:

- The Veterans Benefits Administration
All VA benefits including compensation, education and home loan guarantees. It is administered by VA Regional Offices.
- The Veterans Health Administration
All Veteran healthcare services. It is administered by VA Medical Centers, Ambulatory Care & Community Based Outpatient Clinics.
- The National Cemetery Administration
National and State Veterans Cemeteries and provides burial and memorial service benefits including headstones, markers and Presidential Memorial Certificates.

VA and DOD Benefits and Services Programs

Many of the benefits and services provided to US Veterans and their families are integrated programs offered by both the VA and DOD. For example, Military Funeral Honors are provided by the DOD and administered by the VA. Both the VA and DOD provide life insurance programs such as Servicemembers Group Life Insurance (SGLI).

Please see the sections, "VA Benefits and Services" and "DOD Benefits and Services" later in this eBook. For information on specific Veteran benefits and services, please go to the VA website at www.va.gov and the DOD website at <http://militarypay.defense.gov/benefits/>

Who are US Veterans?

The VA and DOD consider military department service records to confirm a Veteran's status and to make a benefit determination. Veterans include the following categories of people:

- Active duty Servicemembers
- Retired Servicemembers
- Active duty National Guard or Reserve Servicemembers

Contact your local or regional VA office for more information on your Veteran status. Active military service refers to one of the following branches of the US military:

- Army
- Navy
- Air Force
- Marine Corps
- Coast Guard

Benefit and Service Eligibility

Eligibility for the Veterans benefits and services offered through the VA and DOD vary. Generally, eligibility is awarded based on to the following criteria:

- Veterans honorably discharged from active duty
- Servicemembers who pass away while on active duty or during training
- Spouses and dependent children of active duty or deceased Servicemembers

Important Note: Active Servicemembers of the National Guard and Reserve may also qualify for Veteran benefits. Go to: <http://www.benefits.va.gov/GUARDRESERVE/active-reserve.asp> on eligibility.

End-of-Life Benefits and Services for US Veterans

The VA and DOD work together to provide benefits and services to US Veterans and their families.

VA End-of-Life Benefits and Services

The VA administers many End-of-Life benefits and services that provide assistance to Servicemembers, Veterans and their dependents and survivors. These include the following:

VA Healthcare Benefits for Elderly Veterans

The VA provides a wide variety of benefits and services to elderly Veterans. VA healthcare benefits specifically designed for the elderly include advanced or “geriatric” health care and long-term care programs.

Geriatrics and Long-Term Care

Geriatrics is health care for elderly Veterans with complex needs. Extended care or long-term care is for Veterans who need daily support and assistance with practical tasks like meals, medication, bathing and dressing. Elderly Veterans can receive geriatric and long-term care assistance at home, at VA medical centers or in the community. The following VA programs are available:

- Home-Based and Community Services
Adult day health care, home-based primary care, homemaker and home healthaide care, hospice and palliative care, Program for All-inclusive Care of the Elderly, respite care, skilled home health care, Telehealth care and Veteran directed care.
- Nursing Home and Residential Settings
Community living centers, community nursing homes, state Veterans homes, community residential settings, adult family homes, assisted living and medical foster homes.
- Innovative Approaches to Home-based Care
Care management and transitional care, dementia case management, geriatric primary and specialty care, hospice and palliative care, mobile adult day health care, among others.
- Shared Decision-Making
Evaluation and determination by medical and other care providers to facilitate choices about long-term care and support services.

VA Compensation and Pension Benefit Programs

VA disability compensation provides benefits to recognize the effects of disabilities, diseases or injuries incurred during active military service. These programs also provide monthly payments to surviving spouses, dependent children and dependent parents due to economic loss caused by a Veteran's death during or after discharge from active military service.

Dependency and Indemnity Compensation (DIC)

DIC provides tax-free monetary benefits to an eligible spouse, children or parents of Servicemembers, or eligible Veterans who passed away in the line of duty, or due to a VA-recognized service-related condition.

Veterans and Survivor's Pension and Supplemental Income

The VA helps Veterans and their families cope with financial challenges by providing need-based tax-free supplemental monthly income through these programs:

- Veterans Pension/Supplemental Income for Wartime Veterans
- Survivor Pension

Aid and Attendance Programs

Veterans or surviving spouses who are eligible for VA pension programs and are housebound, or require the aid of another person may be eligible for additional compensation through the Aid and Attendance (A & A) program.

The A & A program is an increased monthly pension amount paid if you require help performing daily functions, such as bathing, eating or dressing, or if you are bedridden, are in a nursing home or if your eyesight is severely limited.

Special Monthly Compensation (SMC)

SMC is an additional tax-free benefit that can be paid to Veterans at a higher rate of compensation due to special circumstances such as the need of aid and attendance by another person or by specific disability, such as loss of use of one hand or leg.

VA Burial and Memorial Benefits and Services

The VA provides benefits, services and allowances to reimburse burial and memorial costs for a Veteran and/or his or her dependents, including:

- Burial Benefits and Services
These include burial in a National or State Cemetery and use of the VA National Gravesite Locator (NGL) Service, burial allowances, grave liner, opening and closing of the grave and perpetual care of the gravesite.
- Physical Memorials
These include burial flag (Veteran only), government headstone, marker or medallion including inscription and Presidential Memorial Certificate (Veteran only).

Important Note: If the Veteran prefers to be buried in a private cemetery, they may still be entitled to a headstone or marker, a burial flag, a Presidential Memorial Certificate and burial allowances. Go to: www.cem.va.gov/burial_benefits/ for more information.

Burial Space in a National Cemetery

Burial in a VA National Cemetery is available to eligible Veterans, spouses and dependents at no cost to the family.

Burial benefits for Veterans include a gravesite in any of 131 National Cemeteries with available space, opening and closing of the grave, perpetual care of the gravesite, a Government headstone or marker, a burial flag, and a Presidential Memorial Certificate. Benefits for some Veterans may include burial allowances or Military Funeral Honors provided by the DOD.

VA National Gravesite Locator (NGL) Service

The VA service is a database of Veterans burial records and their dependents who were buried in VA National Cemeteries, State Veterans or other military cemeteries. Go to: www. http://gravelocator.cem.va.gov

Burial Flags

The VA will provide a US burial flag to drape the casket or accompany the urn of a deceased Veteran who served honorably in the US Armed Forces. The proper way to display the flag during a funeral service depends on whether the casket is open or closed. VA Form 27-2008 provides the correct method for displaying and folding the flag.

The flag is typically given to the next-of-kin as a keepsake after its use during the funeral service. When there is no next-of-kin, the VA will furnish the flag to a friend or loved one who requests it.

You may get a US burial flag at any VA regional office or US Post Office. Your funeral provider may also help you obtain a burial flag. For more information please go to: http://www.cem.va.gov/cem/burial_benefits/burial_flags.asp

Headstones, Markers and Medallions

- Veterans, active duty Servicemembers and retired Reservists and National Guard Servicemembers are eligible for an inscribed headstone or marker for their unmarked grave at any cemetery including national, state Veterans, tribal or private.
- The VA will deliver a headstone or marker at no cost to anywhere in the world.
- Eligible Veterans or Servicemembers buried in a private cemetery whose death occurred on or after Nov. 1, 1990 may receive a government headstone or marker or medallion from the VA, even if the grave is already marked with a private one.
- Spouses and dependent children are eligible for a government headstone or marker only if they are buried in a national or state Veterans cemetery.

For headstone or markers at private ceremonies, the next of kin or authorized representative should check with the cemetery to ensure that the headstone or marker will be accepted. All installation fees at private cemeteries are the responsibility of the applicant.

Military Funeral Honors Ceremony

Upon request, military units are required by law to provide a minimum two-person uniformed detail to present at a Funeral Honors ceremony.

Share this eBook

Learn more at www.passare.com

- One person must represent the deceased loved one's branch of service
- Playing of the music of "Taps"
- Folding and presentation of the US flag

The Veteran's service representative presents the flag. Additional Funeral Honors elements may be provided if personnel and resources are available:

- Rifle detail
- Color guard
- Pallbearers
- Caisson
- Military flyover

How to Request Military Funeral Honors

A Veteran, family member or a funeral service provider may request Military Funeral Honors. The DOD maintains a toll-free number (1-877-MIL-HONR) for funeral directors exclusively. The VA can help arrange honors for burials at VA national cemeteries. For more information, visit www.militaryfuneralhonors.osd.mil/

VA Grief Counseling Services

The VA offers no-cost bereavement counseling to parents, spouses and children of Veterans who died in service to their country. Family members of Reservists and National Guardsmen who died while on duty are also eligible.

To obtain grief counseling services, contact the VA Readjustment Counseling Service at 202-461-6530 or email your request to: vetcenter.bereavement@va.gov.

Life Insurance Benefit Programs

End-of-Life Financial Resources for US Veterans

In addition to compensation, pension, life insurance and burial benefits, the VA provides additional financial resources to help eligible Veterans and their beneficiaries manage End-of-Life planning costs:

- Beneficiary Financial Counseling Service (BFCS)
- Online will preparation services
- Fiduciary Program

Beneficiary Financial Counseling Service (BFCS)

The BFCS provides free, professional financial advice to VA life insurance beneficiaries from FinancialPoint, an independent company that handles financial matters.

Online Will Preparation Servicest

This VA service enables beneficiaries to easily prepare a will without an attorney.
